Event Space:

Tampa's Historic Fire Museum offers a centrally located downtown location at the corner of Jefferson and Zack Streets. The second floor gallery is approximately 2,500 square feet, with original 1920's wood flooring in a rich walnut tone, and there's an additional 900 square feet of carpeted pre-function space. The entire museum is wheel chair accessible.

Capacity

2nd floor gallery space can accommodate the following number of guests:

- 150 - Seated (tables of eight) without dance floor
- 120 - Seated (tables of eight) with dance floor
- 200 - Theater style (no tables)
- 250 - Standing Cocktail Party

Please contact us for the number of guests the 1st floor gallery space can accommodate. Please note that the Museum Exhibits will remain in place when the 1st floor space is used.
